

MUNICH | 23
NOVEMBER

European Cities and the Refugee Situation:
A Laboratory for Affordable Housing and Urban Resilience?

LOCATION:

Forum Vorhoelzer, Institutsbau, Technical University of Munich (TUM)

8:30-9:00 - Welcome and breakfast

9:00-9:10 - Opening Remarks

- Cécile Maisonneuve (President, La Fabrique de la Cité)

9:10-10:40 - Session 1: Resilience of European Cities To Demographic Shocks

This session will seek to discuss the various challenges associated with housing asylum-seekers and refugees in dense European cities starting in 2015, the innovations born from this and the challenges that cities encountered, and, the striking insights the panelists retain from this crisis.

Moderator:

- Anna Scheuermann (Curator, Making Heimat)

Presentation of the study «European Cities and the Refugee Situation: A Laboratory for Affordable Housing and Urban Resilience to Future Crises»

- Cécile Maisonneuve (President, La Fabrique de la Cité)

Roundtable and debate

- Marie-Therese Harnoncourt-Fuchs (CEO, tnE Architects)
- Monika Hebbinghaus (Spokesperson, Landesamt für Flüchtlingsangelegenheiten, Berlin)
- Cécile Maisonneuve (President, La Fabrique de la Cité)
- Anselm Sprandel (Director, Zentraler Koordinierungsstab Flüchtlinge, Hamburg)

10:40-11:00 - Break

11:00-12:30 - Session 2: Munich, an Urban Lab For Affordable Housing

This session will focus on the ways stakeholders in Munich have used the temporary housing challenge to address and reflect on the affordable housing challenge.

Moderator:

- Julia Hinderink (Architect, Curator of Flucht nach Vorne)

Roundtable and debate

- Ulrich Benz (Urban rehabilitation and housing construction, City of Munich)
- Prof. Ruth Berkold* (Founder and Owner of YES ARCHITECTURE)
- Ralph Boch (Administrator, Hans Sauer Stiftung)
- Peter Cachola Schmal (Director, Deutsches Architekturmuseum)
- Till Hofmann (Coordinator, Bellevue di Monaco)

12:30-13:00 - Closing remarks

- Peter Cachola Schmal (Director, Deutsches Architekturmuseum)
- Cécile Maisonneuve (President, La Fabrique de la Cité)

13:00-14:30 - Lunch

14:45-16:00 - Visit of the exhibition «Does Permanence Matter: Ephemeral Urbanism»

Architekturmuseum der TU München

**To be confirmed*